SONGS OF SALVATION

HIS BOUNDLESS LOVE
Tune—Take Salvation, 170; blessed
Love, 100.

Boundless as the mighty ocean,
Rolling on from pole to pole,
Is the boundless love of Jesus
To the weary, sinful soul—
Boundless mercy,
Making guilty sinners whole.

Boundless as the starry heavens,
Filled with fiery orbs of light,
Are the promises of Jesus
For the soul in nature's night:
Ever shining,
Till our faith is changed to sight.

Boundless as eternal ages,
As the air we breathe as free,
In the boundless, full Salvation
Jesus purchased on the tree—
Boundless cleansing
From all sin's impurity.

A CROSS FOR ALL
Tune—Manchester, 47; I am clinging
Must Jesus bear the cross alone,
And all the world go free?
No, there's a cross for every one,
And there's a cross for me.

Chorus
I am clinging to the cross!
The consecrated cross I'll bear
Till death shall set me free;
And then go home my crown to wear,
For there's a crown for me I wear.

Upon the crystal pavement, down
At Jesus' pierced feet,
Joyful I'll cast my golden crown,
And His dear name repeat.

O glorious cross! O glorious crown!
O resurrection day!
Ye angels, from the heavens come
And bear my soul away, down

He was found worthy
Tune—He was found worthy, and much more, 100; B.F., 100.

Who none was found to ransom
He was found worthy! [Tune,
To set a world of sinners free,
He was found worthy!]

CHORUS
Oh, the bleeding Lamb!
He was found worthy!

To take the book and loose the seal,
To bruise the head that bruised
His heel.

To open wide the gates of Heaven;
To Him all majesty is given.

His Blood has washed me white as snow,
And all His fulness I shall know.

A FRIEND IN JESUS
Tune—The Lily of the Valley, 220; Song
Book, 287.

I've found a Friend in Jesus,
He's everything to me;
He's the Father of ten thousand to
The Lily of the Valley, [my soul];
In Him alone I see [fully whole];
All I need to cleanse and make me
In sorrow He's my Comfort,
He tells me every care on Him to

He all my griefs has taken,
And all my sorrows borne;
In temptation He's my Strong and Mighty Tower;
I've all for Him forsaken,
I've all my idols torn,
From my heart, and now He keeps
me by His power,
Through all the world forsake me,
And Satan tempt me sore,
Through Jesus I shall surely reach the goal.

ANNIVERSARY MEETINGS

Conducted at Winnipeg, Ill., by Adjutant and Mrs. Habkirk.

The thirteenth anniversary meetings of the Winnipeg 111. Corps were conducted by Adjutant and Mrs. Hektor Habkirk, on Sunday, August 11th. The Corps was opened by the then Captain H. Habkirk, Lieutenant W. Oake (now Corps Officer), and Lieutenant Clement

(now at Tacoma, Washington), on August 11th, 1905. Adjutant and Mrs. Habkirk were given a rousing welcome when introduced by Ensign Oake at the morning meeting. Messages were read from some of the former Officers of the Corps, including one from Adjutant Clement, who was associated with the opening, and Ensign Bourne (Portage). Splendid crowds attended the meetings all day, and at night the building was packed. The Adjutant enrolled Brother and Sister Green. Brother Green is a returned soldier.

Mrs. Habkirk took as her lesson at night "The Old Gospel." A minister's son, who had not attended any church for years, and who was led away from simple faith through reading higher criticism literature, at the close of the first meeting was the first volunteer. He got thoroughly converted. Two women also gave themselves to God.

Ensign and Mrs. Oake, who have just returned from furlough, received a hearty welcome from the comrades and friends. The Band and Songsters did good service all day. It was encouraging to see the old warriors that stood in the first opening of the Corps at the front of the battle all day. God bless them!—One of the Old School.

WEDDING AT VICTORIA

An interesting event took place at Victoria when Adjutant Merritt left before leaving for his new assignment, united in marriage at the home of the bride's mother, Brother Dick Horn and Sister Sara Gay. Quite a number of comrades were present. Brother Horn has been service overseas and since the return takes quite an active part in the Corps. People say that

STONE LAYING AT PARIS

LIEUT.-COLONEL CHANDLER PRESIDES AT INTERESTING EVENT—A FINE NEW CITADEL WILL SOON BE READY FOR USE

WHAT will undoubtedly be one of the finest little Citadels is under course of construction at Paris, Ontario. It will be remembered that a little over a year ago the old building was shattered by a gas explosion resulting in a fatality, as well as a number of injured comrades. Thanks to the public, through the efforts of the Subscribers' Department, funds have been steadily coming in, making it possible for the ground to be broken and the foundations put in.

Our old friend and comrade, Brother McLaughlin (the contractor) had everything in readiness for the corner-stone to be well and truly laid on Tuesday, August 20th, consequently Lieut.-Colonel and Mrs. Chandler (the Divisional Commanders), with about seventy comrades from the neighbouring city of Bramford, invaded the town. The delightful weather, together with day-light saving, made it possible for the ceremony to take place in the evening.

A crowd estimated at five hundred persons gathered around, a considerable number being seated on the rest upon the ceremony, and that the building might see his honour crowned. Lieut.-Colonel Chandler, in a few, well-chosen words, referred to the old place and the catastrophe, and then proceeded to lay the stone. A fine programme of instrumental and vocal music by the Band and Songsters was evidently much enjoyed by the crowd, who stayed "until darkness began to gather."

A large crowd followed the march down to the square, where after a sermon by the Band, prayer closed a very useful service. Paris has a warm spot for the Army, and many were the expressions heard that it was a good thing that The Army was here to have a fine, useful building to carry on its work, as in former days.

God was with us on Sunday and one soul knelt at the cross at night. We had a great march round the Hall. Last Wednesday thirty Home League members had a picnic to the Island; now they are getting boxes ready for the boys overseas.

On Sunday, Aug. 18th, we welcomed Captain and Mrs. Burrows to Weyburn. Good crowds attended the meetings all day. We thank God for the converts who are taking their stand. M. N.

BRANDON ALDERMAN

Leads the Week-end Meetings at Portage la Prairie

A series of meetings was conducted by Brandon (Alderman) Goss, Dinsdale of Brandon Corps, at Portage la Prairie on August 24th-25th. We commenced with two well-attended open-air meetings on Sunday evening, which were much appreciated by the crowds that stood around.

Sunday was an exceptionally busy day. Brother Dinsdale having been the Jail Sergeant for many years, could not resist going and speaking chery words and singing Salvation songs to the prisoners in jail. All the prisoners enjoyed his visit to them.

There were good attendances at the open-air meetings on Sunday morning, and a splendid time was spent. On Sunday afternoon, after a rousing open-air, we went to the Training School for Boys, where an enthusiastic meeting was held. My, what singing! It was delightful; every one was pleased with it.

At night the indoor congregation was splendid, and every comrade felt encouraged. A few instruments, numbering seven, furnished the music for the day, and the people were delighted to hear brass band music again.—B. B.

NEW OFFICERS

Are Welcomed at Gannanook Corps

Last week-end we welcomed to Gannanook Capt. and Mrs. Thompson, from Coleman, Alta. Ensign Timm and Lieutenant Madams have followed. The services conducted during the week-end by our new Officers drew a good attendance, those present enjoying the services fine. The Captain, who conducted the Sunday evening service, gave a most stirring spiritual talk.

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER

Are Both Salvationists Now

On Tuesday, August 13th, we had Ensign Squarebriggs with us at Mountain. We had a good time. God was with us, and we were greatly blessed. The Ensign's daughter was a fine girl, and we were glad to see her. The Ensign's daughter was a fine girl, and we were glad to see her.

One sister was enrolled as a Soldier. Her mother was enrolled last spring, and she brought her daughter to Jesus. As soon as she got home, she was a very enjoyable girl, joining the Life-Saving Guards and also the Corps Cadets.

On Sunday we were in the spirit all day, and at night Mrs. Adjutant Ellsworth gave a very powerful address from Daniel.—E. T.

VISITORS AT BOWMANVILLE

On Wednesday, Aug. 14th, the Home League and Young People at Bowmanville invited for their annual picnic. A very pleasant afternoon was spent at the lake. After supper we had games till eight o'clock, when we returned home, tired but happy.

On the following Sunday (Aug. 18th) the Oshawa Corps Cadets visited us and had some good games. We were checked and blessed by singing and testimonies.

CARING FOR THE BLIND

Toronto Leads Way in Providing Facilities for Training, Employment, and After-Care of Sightless Ones

CANADIAN NATIONAL INSTITUTE OPENED

"If the blindness that came to me will only result in the awakening of Canada to her obligations and opportunities toward her citizen blind, our blindness will be well worth while."

Thus spoke a returned soldier who lost his sight in his country's service on the fields of France (says the Toronto Star).

The awakening he referred to has come. It found practical expression in the formal opening of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind, Toronto is now the only city of its size in the world which has facilities for the training, employment, and after-care of those among Canada's adult citizens, whose soldier or civilian, who have lost their sight.

It will find further expression on September 1st in the opening of an industrial Training School for the Blind. Toronto is now the only city of its size in the world which has facilities for the training, employment, and after-care of those among Canada's adult citizens, whose soldier or civilian, who have lost their sight.

HOME LEAGUE NOTES

Bowmanville—On a recent Sunday afternoon Sisters Mrs. Noakes and Mrs. Burns were commissioned as Home League Secretary and Treasurer, respectively. Our comrades have their new duties with favour and we are looking forward to good times in the future.

Wetaskiwin—We have just had a Sale of Work, it was a great success. We had a table of home cooking, in addition to the clothing made by the Home League members, also a ready table and refreshment table. The Hall was prettily decorated for the occasion, and presented a pleasing appearance. Great credit is due the Treasurer (Mrs. Fee), who has held the League together under discouraging conditions, and worked so well to make the Sale a success. Our comrades also deserve mention: Sisters Mrs. Green, Mrs. Bragdon, and Eva Price, who worked unflinchingly at the refreshment table; also Sisters Edith Bengtson, Mary Waldron, Gladys Fee, and Emily Rams. In this, as in all things, we give God the glory and are glad to be able to wipe out our debt of fifty dollars, as a result of the Sale.—Captain Norman

West Toronto—Our Home League, during the hot weather, has been entirely flooding on, and our boys overseas have benefited by receiving more socks. Our members recently had a picnic to Centre Island, and a very enjoyable day was spent. A splendid overseas box for one of our boys was kindly given by Brother Wetaskiwin, and the members were not able to be present, but the photo sent shows a band of women were are justly proud of. We had the pleasure of a visit from our comrade, Mrs. Dart of Barrie, and she informs us that on a former visit last winter she was so impressed with the spirit and helpfulness of our Home League that she had returned home she never rest of till a branch was started there. And so the work spreads. We are buying in the near future to be better than ever at work.—E. R. D.

THE AMERICAN ARMY

AN INTERVIEW WITH MAJOR JOHN ATKINS, ACTING CHAPLAIN—OPENING A CANTEN WITH A MINIMUM OF EQUIPMENT—PRAYING WITH A PRISONER CONDEMNED TO BE EXECUTED

Of all our Salvation Army Officers in France (says the United States "City") none has had so many memorable experiences as Major John Atkins, who has just returned to the United States to participate in the Chicago War Service Fund Campaign.

In earlier issues—months ago—we reported the fact that Major Atkins had been appointed as acting Chaplain to the battalion of which Major Theodore Roosevelt, Jr. is leader, and this office has taken him directly into the front line trenches and even into No-Man's Land. It can be well understood then that the Major has many amazing stories of horror in the midst of a hell of shell fire exciting enough to "make one's blood run cold" as they used to say.

A Small Start

"I must confess," began the Major, "a condition bordering very closely upon discouragement when my big chance came and I was sent to the regiment with which Major Roosevelt was connected, which had just arrived in France and was located in a training camp well back from the front. I opened up my little canteen with the very minimum of equipment and supplies. I had for my use only eight small tables, ten metal chairs, and a water pail of apples and this equipment was divided between three small rooms in different buildings."

"This is not what you might call labouring under favourable conditions, but we made the best of it and found that the little rooms became very popular with the men. The drizzle in that vicinity was very poor so I found it necessary to dig trenches on two sides of the hut to provide for drainage. I had my 'chow' with the men of the regiment more than a mile away in a little woods. Here I held occasional meetings, as the acting Chaplain, and some wonderful services they were, for all the boys were required to be present, and during the hour or less of the duration of the service, the men were certainly most respectful and in many instances really devout."

It was about this time that a very painful event occurred which gave me an opportunity for which I have been grateful ever since. The American joyous, I understand, some months ago, captured the story of a young soldier who had committed a crime for which he was sentenced to be executed—the only soldier I think before or since to receive this penalty. I was exceedingly sorrow for this young fellow, but others had told me that they had tried to plead with him in the matter of his relation to God, but without any response. I, however, asked permission to talk with the young fellow.

"I found him in the guard-house, manacled and looking very dejected. Other soldiers were there for various violations, but I took the young soldier aside and read from my Bible and pleaded with him and finally, after having the pleasure of seeing the tears of penitence flow down the young fellow's cheeks, I prayed with him. While I prayed I felt the strong pressure of his hand on mine and I heard him rise and kneel beside me with the prayer for forgiveness upon his lips."

"The other soldiers stood around—many with tears in their eyes—witnessing this unusual proceeding, but I have real reason to believe that the young soldier had really found Christ. I saw him awhile before he went to execution, and there was a different light in his eyes. The colonel of the regiment noticed the change in the young man as he walked out of the guard-house and was so impressed with him that he asked the prisoner if he cared to say anything."

"In his last few words he thanked the officers of the regiment for their kindness and mentioned particularly the comfort and hope which I had brought to him. The next day I happened to be in another part of the camp and one of the majors walked a long distance to see me and thank me for the service I had done for the prisoner. A few days later a major-general in charge of the division, in our part of the camp on a tour of inspection met me as I was carrying a bucket of water to the hut and stopped me, saying, 'Major Atkins, I must put my list to you and to The Salvation Army for the work your Organization is doing. Go on as you have begun and if there is anything you need we will see that you get it.'"

Expected to Stick
"A little time later I met Major Roosevelt who spoke to me in a cheery fashion and said, 'Well, Major, we are going up. How would you like to go with us?' I told him I expected to stick to the regiment until they drove me off, and with a smile on his face he said, 'That's bully!' I could see his father in the smile and the exclamation."

"A few days later we entrained and I spent twenty-one hours with the soldiers in a box car, with the full equipment strapped to my back. It wasn't exactly comfortable traveling, but I had a good chance to get acquainted with the boys. We landed then in the Toul Sector, and went almost immediately into the front-line trenches. I took my place with the soldiers and slept in such little sleeping time as we had in the twenty-one days that we were at the front in a dug-out, from which we had to pump the water before we could make a place to sleep."

"I learned that it was necessary to be tactful in regard to religious matters among the boys. Of course, there were all sorts of religious representations, and since I was my duty and wish to help all the men, I had to find ways of serving which would not offend any prejudices. Very much of what I reckon to be my most effective work was purely of a personal order, with a few words here and there directed at the heart of individual men. I have felt grateful to be able to read from their prayer books to Catholic boys who were injured or otherwise unable to read at the moment. Several of the boys have knelt in the front trenches while I have dealt with them and have made their prayer of penitence."

AT FRESH AIR CAMP

Final Sunday's Meetings Well Attended and of Much Interest

The closing meetings of the season at the Jackson's Point Fresh Air Camp on Sunday, August 25th, were conducted by Captain Most and were attended by a large crowd of visitors from the neighbourhood, including a number of our Indian friends, also Officers resting at the Camp and the children. Special singing by the boys and girls was one of the features of the gatherings.

Brigadier Fraser, Captain Wilson, and Ensign Beer took part in the morning service, and Captain Most gave a talk to the children on "Little ways of bettering the world." His apt and practical illustrations of how this had been said could be done greatly interested them.

A beautiful influence pervaded the grave at the night meeting. Lieut.-Colonel Rawling's prayer strengthened our faith that God would visit and bless us. Mrs. Brigadier Fraser read the Scripture and spoke on the word "Watch." Captain Little also spoke and Mrs. Most closed. After Captain Most had expressed, the thanks of the children and adults to the Camp Superintendent (Lieut.-Colonel Rees) for the excellent way he has looked after our interests our meetings for the season were brought to a conclusion. Amidst many expressions of regret the boys and girls returned in the city on Monday, benighted we believe in all ways, by the lovely day they have had at this delightful spot.

NEWS FROM ACROSS THE BORDER

Successful Camp Meetings in Norfolk—Officers Appointed to Work Amongst American Troops in England

Scandinavian Camp Meetings were held at Worcester, Mass., recently. Writing of these gatherings in the American "Cry," Colonel Peart says: "Lieut.-Colonel Nelson, Brigadier Christopher, Major Anderson, and other Officers had planned the various events in an extremely interesting fashion, and the crowds throughout were amazing."

"The success of this camp meeting is an indication that the religion of Christ has not lost its attractive power on account of weather conditions. All that is necessary, it seems, is to provide against the great discomforts that are all around in the summer time. If these could be avoided the power of the Gospel is at any other time."

Commander Douglas Booth has appointed Major Underwood to take up work among the American troops in England. The Major will be proceeding to London to discuss plans and prospects with the International Headquarters. A good work is in progress among the American boys at the two great marine centres, Liverpool and Southampton.

A steamer leaving for America will report last week carried 400 American Salvation Army Officers for service in France.

Hotel at Norfolk

The building at Norfolk, Va., which the Army has secured as a Hotel, is an exceptionally fine building, at the cost of everything in the city. Repairs are now under way and the building is ready to be opened within a very short time. Major McGee, who has done such an excellent work at the Philadelphia Industrial Home, has been placed in charge of the new institution.

Brigadier Webb is a busy man these days, buying the supplies for our War Work in France and at the frontiers in America. Vast quantities of these supplies must be provided from now on.

A personal letter from Brigadier David covers the news that he has conducted quite a number of meetings at several of our Huts in France and that these meetings have been wonderfully well attended, while the response to his earnest and energetic presentation of the Gospel has been exceedingly gratifying. Everything is indeed in a mighty in earnest and is being in the Salvation Army's presentation of the truth.

Fresh Air Work

The Fresh-Air Home at North Long Branch is now in the heyday of its season. Over a hundred mothers and children from the congested sections of New York City have been taken care of, and Mrs. Major Brewer, who has been here, has seen to it that these poor people have had the time of their lives. The Home is doing a wonderful and commendable work.

Commissioner Hall has wired the Commander, saying that the Chicago War Fund Drive opened most auspiciously with a great mass meeting on Sunday. Enthusiasm is at flood-tide. The Commissioner also said that Miss Cera Van Norden did splendid service in the meeting with an illuminating address.

AT WINNIPEG V.

COMMISSIONER AND MRS. SOWTON CHEER AND BLESS THE SCANDINAVIANS—TWO SEEKERS

In spite of the handicap of a broken rib and injured shoulder, the Western Commissioner kept his appointment at Winnipeg, V. (Scandinavian) Corps, and was ably assisted by Mrs. Sowton and also in the absence of the Divisional Commander on furlough, by Adjutant and Mrs. John Merritt.

This Corps has suffered greatly since the war owing to the large number of Scandinavians who have gone on active service, while many others, on account of labour and war conditions, have moved to the States. The Soldiers also, for similar reasons, have been scattered, so the fight at this Corps has not been an easy one for the past two or three years.

Commissioner and Mrs. Sowton were, therefore, with their well-known interest in the Scandinavians, specially glad of the opportunity of sharing the fight with them, and bringing them some encouragement. Our Leaders spoke of Swedish, and very nice, crowd was present, and this on what was perhaps the hottest Sunday of the year.

The addresses of both the Commissioner and Mrs. Sowton were much enjoyed, and there were two seekers in the evening meeting. The Commissioner was pleased to note the great improvement in the appearance of the Hall since his last visit, for white paint and varnish have been put on what was before rather a dingy building.

Captain and Mrs. Skottchen (the Officers in charge) have worked hard, and besides constantly covering the whole district with open-air meetings, have started the Home League, in other ways helped to bring new life into the Corps.

Canada West's Chief Secretary

RECEIVES PROMOTION TO THE RANK OF FULL COLONEL—HE CHATS WITH A "WAR GRAY" REPRESENTATIVE ON THINGS WESTERN

A PHONE message to the effect that the Chief Secretary for Canada West was at Territorial Headquarters in Toronto caused the "War Gray" man to immediately seek an interview with him, as the last page of the paper was then being promotion of Canada West's Chief Secretary.

"Well, what is the news from the West?" we questioned. "The work is progressing splendidly," he replied. "The latest development is the opening of a Military Hotel in Winnipeg. This will take place on Friday, August 20th. Brigadier-General Ketchen will be giving an outline of Salvation Army War Work. We also contemplate opening a similar institution in Vancouver in connection with the Congress which will be held there in November."

"We are launching several big financial schemes too this Fall. At Calgary we plan a wholesale drive for $25,000 on September 10, 11 and 12th. Ten thousand dollars will go towards erecting a new Children's Home, another ten thousand for our War Work, and the remainder for local needs."

"In Winnipeg we aim at securing $50,000 during a campaign which will take place early in October. The money will be divided between the Grace Hospital, the various Social Institutions in the city, and the local work."

"Brandon also will have a campaign in the middle of September to raise $10,000, half for our War Work and half for the local work."

"Staff-Captain Peacock and Adjutant Walker are arranging the details for these drives."

"Smaller campaigns will also take place at Virden and Selkirk, under the direction of Ensign Tuttle."

"I might mention also that we will have the largest number of Cadets in Training this Season that we have ever had."

"I expect to conduct the welcome meeting at Winnipeg to thirty-six Cadets."

"And how is the Commissioner?"

"He is still suffering from the effects of the bad fall he had but it is not seriously interfering with his work. He has altered the dates of a few of his engagements, but now he is on the warpath again and after the opening of the Winnipeg Hotel will undertake a long tour through the prairie provinces."

QUESTIONED BY QUERY

LEUT.-COLONEL ADBY CHATS ABOUT HIS ARMY CAREER AND PARTICULARLY OF ADVANCES MADE IN TORONTO DIVISION

FOR the past three years Lieut.-Colonel Adby, who was informed of his promotion to that rank by the Commissioner at his farewell Council with his Officers in the Dovercourt Hall, has been in command of the Toronto Division—now he has been well to become Provincial Officer of Newfoundland. It is an opportunity, therefore, to give a passing glimpse at his career and a brief review of what has been accomplished in his last command in particular.

"How long have you been a Salvation Army Officer, Colonel?" we asked.

"Let me see now. I came into the Work in the year 1888, so I have completed thirty-five years' service. My, it seems a long time—what events have crowded into my life in that period!"

And he fell into a retrospective mood. Staring at the wall while it was not to see who I was, he exclaimed, "You have done all this for me; you are the man I want."

"It was a man who had been standing around the open-air song and who had been deeply moved by the song I had sung. I pointed him to the Salvation, and when he realized that his sins were forgiven, in the greatness of his joy he implanted an ardent kiss on my cheek. The man's wife got saved soon after, and then a daughter who was sick in the hospital, and eventually he became Colour-Sergeant of the Mackay Corps."

"You have had some stirring times during your period of Corps Officership, do you not?"

"Yes, God has blessed my efforts, and I have had the joy of seeing multitudes of souls saved. At Oldham, Corps, where I was married, by the way, a glorious awakening took place. Amongst the numerous converts were some of the worst characters of the town. At our farewell meeting, shortly afterwards, I knelt at the President's feet and found Salvation."

"And how were you led into Officership?"

"The General was conducting meetings at Oxford and I went there. He called me aside, and asked me if I did not feel I should be an Officer. A week later I was in the Clapton Training Home. That was, rushing a Candidate's case through in quick time, wasn't it?"

"Do you recollect any incident of your Training days?"

"How long have you been a Divisional Officer?"

"For twenty years practically, though when I came to Canada in 1908, I spent a brief period as Territorial Spiritual Special. The following year I was appointed to the St. John Division, and two years later to Hamilton. I remained there four years and took charge of the Toronto Division in the Fall of 1915."

"In reviewing your term in the Toronto Division, what pleases you most?"

"The splendid spiritual condition of each of the Corps and the hearty way in which Officers, Local Officers, and Soldiers have co-operated to advance the Kingdom of God."

"What evidences of progress can you point to?"

"Well, firstly, the continuous soul-saving work that is going on. Then I would say that the increase in Carriage money is an evidence that our people are realizing more and more their responsibilities towards supporting God's Work. The Divisional total in this respect has advanced by 75%. Some of the Corps have made 100% increase. This is very gratifying."

"What property advances have been made?"

"There has been a good move forward in this direction. I am pleased to say, at North Toronto a fine new Hall has just been opened, and at West Toronto a Young People's Hall has been added to the main building. The Halls at Brampton and Lippincott have been renovated so that they appear like new buildings. Considerable improvements have also been made at Wyckwood. At Ancona our Hall was burned down but the new building has now been put up suitable for Seniors and Juniors. In the Lansdowne District an old church has been purchased and renovated and at Mimico a portable Hall has been put up on our land."

"One very pleasing feature about the properties in this Division is that they all, with one exception, belong to Headquarters. The only one that does not is rented to us by the trustees at a very nominal figure."

"Has not the Division done splendidly as regards Self-Denial during the last three years?"

"The Division has done excellently in this respect. In 1914 it raised $6,344, and this year the total was $10,983, an increase of over $4,600."

"Are there any other aspects of the work you would like to refer to?"

"I might say that the Life-Saving Guards and Scouts have been organized at five Corps—Brampton, Oshawa, Toronto, L. Mimico, and Sunbury. Troops of Life-Saving Guards have also been organized at Lansdowne and Wyckwood."

"Primary Work has also been commenced in a number of Corps. At Lisgar Street, for instance, the Primary Corps numbers sixty-five. Great interest is now being taken in this branch of Junior Work."

"Home Leagues have been started in seventeen Corps. Mrs. Adby and, Adjutant Knight, I might mention have taken great interest in the League."

"The Bands and Songster Brigades are in good condition, in spite of depletion on account of the war."

"How do you regard your new appointment?"

"Both I and Mrs. Adby are delighted with the opportunity before us, though we regret having to leave the Toronto Division so soon. At the call of The General, however, we go to Newfoundland gladly and with a good heart, full of faith that God will bless our labour there as He has elsewhere and that we shall witness mighty victories."

PROMOTED TO GLORY

Brother Poyzer, Montreal VI.

On Tuesday, Aug. 6th, the Verdun Corps suffered a great loss when God called one of His most saintly followers and devoted workers to his eternal home, in the person of Brother Henry Poyzer, or better known to us as "Dad".

Brother Poyzer had been a great sufferer for a long time, being confined to his home (and the greater part of it to his bed) for the past two months, but amid all his sufferings he was always cheerful and full of zeal for his Master's work to the very last.

When comrades visited him, he always wanted to know their spiritual experience; never in any way alluding to their earthly experience, showing how entirely spiritual his thoughts were. No one that visited him came away without feeling that his or her experience was brighter by having come in contact with him.

Previous to coming to Canada Brother Poyzer was a teacher in one of the Methodist Colleges of the Old Country. After coming to this country he was engaged for seven years in circuit work for the same body, having thrown in his lot with the Salvation Army one and a half years ago.

The funeral service, both at the home and at the grave, was conducted by Ernest Pace, under whose Officership Brother Poyzer became a Soldier, assisted by a fellow-colleague of "Dad's" in the Methodist Church, Rev. Desprose. By our late brother's request, we gave him an Army funeral.

The memorial service for our late comrade was held on Sunday night, Aug. 16th, and was conducted by Major Southall. The Major spoke very touchingly of our brother having gone to receive his heavenly V.C. which we all felt sure was true. At the close of the service two backsliders returned to the fold. Brother Poyzer leaves to mourn his loss three daughters and three sons, Mrs. Poyzer having pre-deceased him some four months ago.

Brother Saunders, North Bay

Death visited the North Bay Corps on Tuesday morning, July 16th, and very suddenly removed from our midst Brother Harold E. Saunders, aged fifteen years. Harold had been a Junior all his life, and at the time of his death was a member of the Men's Bible Class connected with our Young People's Corps, and was shortly to be transferred to the Senior Soldiers' Roll. About five weeks previously to his death he, with three other youths, gave his heart to God, and since then his life and personal testimony have gone to show the power of God in the lives of the young.

Our young comrade went to his work on the night of the 15th unusually bright and happy, and was checking some railway cars, had the misfortune to fall between them, when they moved, one of them passing over his head. We were summoned to the hospital, and were privileged to be with him to the end. He left a brief testimony that he "loved Jesus" the "Captain" was precious to him in the hour of death. Bidding his mother not to be left alone, to awaken in the Glory Land.

We gave Harold a real Army funeral, which was conducted by Lieut. Colonel and Brig. Chandler, assisted by Ensign Riches and Captain Walcott, and Ensign Mabb (the Corps Officer). At the memorial service, which was conducted by Ensign and Mrs. Riches, three young women gave themselves to God. Our prayers called the fact that horses were introduced into Mesopotamia thousands of years ago by the Babylonians.

MESOPOTAMIA

PART I—ITS ANCIENT GLORIES

MESOPOTAMIA and its adjacent plains have been associated with the most important turning-points of history (writes Canon Parfitt). Geographically situated at the heart of the Eastern Hemisphere, these lands have frequently played a leading part in the world's activities. They have contained for millen-

Among the capital cities of great world empires. They have been closely connected with the most thrilling epochs of history, and, once again, by reason of the Bagdad railway scheme, Mesopotamia controls the main currents of this unprecedented commotion and holds the key to the whole world's future.

Cradled Human Race

Mesopotamia eradicated the human race and nurtured it for centuries, until a new era was introduced by the Flood incidents, which are recorded not only in the Hebrew canoniform inscription, but also in the cuneiform inscriptions found in Mesopotamia.

This is essentially a land of origin, the oldest sea route in the world, utilized by the first navigators of the high seas, was the Persian Gulf, and the numerous mounds at Bahrain remind us of the world's debt to the Phoenicians, the earliest system of weights and measures, and who originally migrated to Syria from the shores of the Persian Gulf and the ports of Mesopotamia. From this land also the Hebrew race took its rise when Abraham came from Ur of the Chaldees and settled in Canaan.

of dialects took place at a time when cuneiform characters become common, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia were driven forth to colonize the continents.

But Babylon was also the mother of astronomy, and to her ancient system of dividing the day we are indebted for the twelve divisions on the dial of our clocks.

The most curious ruin in Mesopotamia is the unlovely mound of Akker Kul, near Bagdad, connected, we are told, with the remote period of King Kariusan, who reigned in Mesopotamia, but also in the Hebrew canon, the time when Moses was leading the Israelites from Egypt to Canaan. Those ancient mounds of "Babylon, Assyria, and Media, and Persia, were great and powerful in their day, exercising a paramount influence for many centuries over the larger part of the world's politics, so that no other portion of the earth's surface has more constantly affected the history of mankind, or harboured for so long the forces that moved the world, than this land of Mesopotamia.

The extensive ruins of Assur, north of Kirkuk, the mounds of Nineveh, on the bank of the Tigris, and the ruins of the modern city of Mosul, the ruins of Babylon, on the Euphrates, and the arch at Ctesiphon, all testify to the old-world glories of this wonderful land.

For nearly twenty years investigators have been busy attempting to uncover the brick-work palaces and temples of Nebuchadnezzar, but most of them have been destroyed.

CHAPTER XX

ROUGH TIMES AT EASTBOURNE

SHORTLY after he had become established as a stockbroker, Jacob was invited to join the Honourable Artillery Company of London, a volunteer organization recruited from the business men of the city, and whose members roll have borne the names of many distinguished persons, including John Milton.

Helped to Break Barriers

And in this case, too, Jacob was one of the first to break down the barriers of prejudice and pride which prevented him from so long from doing God's purpose for his life. One of the first to break down the barriers of prejudice and pride which prevented him from so long from doing God's purpose for his life.

The Captain in charge of The Salvation Army Corps at Eastbourne had been a Band, but when he applied to the Mayor for permission to play on the streets his request was refused on the grounds that he was playing on Sunday week. He then went to the Mayor and asked for a license to play on the streets. He then went to the Mayor and asked for a license to play on the streets.

The rowdies made an assault on the Army procession

Band made his first appearance on the streets and was proceeding from the office stand to The Army Hall when the Chief Constable appeared and stopped the procession. He informed the Captain that he was playing contrary to the clause in the Eastbourne Local Improvement Act, and requested him to desist.

The effect of this, however, was just the opposite to what was intended. The curiosity of the people being aroused all the more, and greater crowds than ever assembled along the route taken by the Army procession. In spite of police protection the Salvationists were pretty badly treated by the mob, and reached their Hall with torn uniforms and broken instruments.

On the following Sunday, however, a number of rowdies, accepting the news as an indication that they could indulge in unlimited horseplay, assembled in great force and made several serious assaults on the Army procession. This somewhat alarmed the authorities, who hastily issued a proclamation asking the people to refrain from hurling, kicking, or opposing the members of The Army, or accompanying or watching its procession.
